

Activities Directors' Quarterly

for Alzheimer's & Other Dementia Patients[®]

Table of contents

A tribute to Judi Voelkl4

ADQ insert
Notes from nursing: Effects of sensory bombardment5
Suzanne Fitzsimmons, MS, GNP, ARNP

CMS delays MDS 3.0 implementation18

ADQ proven activities23

ADQ lesson plan26

SEASONAL PLANNER — Special Pullout Section
Activities to celebrate the season24, 25

LOW-FUNCTIONING

Tips for adapting activities for those with a terminal illness7
Angela Sardina

LOW- TO MID-FUNCTIONING

The feasibility of implementing Tai Chi for nursing home residents with knee osteoarthritis and cognitive impairment9
Pao-Feng Tsai, RN, PhD; Jason Y. Chang, PhD
Cornelia Beck, RN, PhD; Jody Hagen, PhD, HSPP
K. J. S. Anand, MBBS, DPhil, FAAP, FCCM, FRCPC
Yong-Fang Kuo, PhD; Paula K. Roberson, PhD
Karl Rosengren, PhD; Linda Beuscher, RN, PhD

ALL FUNCTIONING LEVELS

Coping with losses: How activities can help19
Suzanne Fitzsimmons, MS, GNP, ARNP

Culture change and activities: Learning the lingo and making yourself invaluable27
Linda L. Buettner, PhD, CTRS, LRT

The creative caregiver spirit33
Rob Holl

MID- TO HIGH-FUNCTIONING

Service learning: Students, faculty, and communities working together41
Nancy E. Richeson, PhD, CTRS; Karen Bean
Heather LaFramboise; Emily Wark

Change as a natural occurrence