

Activities Directors' Quarterly

for Alzheimer's & Other Dementia Patients®

Table of contents

Editorial
Reducing anxiety in residents with dementia with a plan and an activity5
Linda Buettner, PhD, CTRS, LRT

ADQ Inservice
Notes from nursing: Sensory changes and communication with older adults7
Suzanne Fitzsimmons, MSN, ARNP

Book Review43
Linda Buettner, PhD, CTRS, LRT

2nd Annual Contest: Honorable Mentions28, 45, 46

ADQ Proven Activity18

ADQ Featured Lesson Plan26

SEASONAL PLANNER — Special Pullout Section
Activities to celebrate the season24, 25

ALL FUNCTIONING LEVELS

Music and memory: Alzheimer's disease and the "Well-Tuned" iPod—Adding a personal playlist to the quest for "person-centered care"19
Concetta M. Tomaino, DA, MT-BC, LCAT

Disaster or emergency:
Tabletop drills—What are they?29
Timothy J. Legg, PhD, MS, CNHA, GNP-BC
Barbara J. Gunderson RN, MSN
Deborah S. Adelman, PhD, RN, NE-BC, CNS

Anything but recreation! Universal problems associated with the provision of meaningful recreation in long-term care facilities, Part 1: Activities as babysitting—When residents should not be brought to a specific activity37
Timothy J. Legg, PhD, RN-BC, CNHA, CTRS, FACHCA
Linda Buettner, PhD, LRT, CTRS

Activities that truly benefit the patient